1. INFORMATION

There shall be one scholarship available for award each year to a female student who is enrolled full-time in the Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) or Bachelor of Engineering (Research and Development) (Honours) program.

2. VALUE

The value of your scholarship will be stipulated in the official letter of offer. The scholarship is payable in two equal instalments at the beginning of each semester for one year. Payment will be via Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) to the scholar’s nominated bank account.

The Scholarship does not provide exemption from payment of tuition fees, reading and study materials, accommodation or any other cost associated with studying.

3. ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for consideration applicants must:

- Be an Australian citizen or Australian Permanent Resident only;
- Be enrolled in a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours), Bachelor of Engineering (Research and Development) (Honours) or a flexible double degree with either of these programs.
- Be enrolled full-time in at least 24 units of ENGN courses.

4. APPLICATION

There will be a call for applications each year by the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science (the College). Applications are required to be submitted on the prescribed form.

5. SELECTION

A Selection Committee will be appointed and will make a recommendation for the award of this Scholarship based primarily on academic merit, the applicants supporting documents, achievement in extracurricular student projects and any other factors which the Selection Committee considers to be appropriate and in line with the College’s strategic direction and priorities.
The Scholarship shall not be awarded if, in the opinion of the Selection committee, there is no candidate of sufficient merit.

The Selection Committee also reserves the right to award more than one Scholarship in any year where the Committee deems that there is more than one deserving candidate or candidates of equal merit.

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS/AWARDS

A scholar is not permitted to hold any other award or scholarship concurrently with the Scholarship. If the scholar fails to notify the College of their tenure of another award, the Dean of the College (or nominee) may determine that the Scholarship shall be refunded by the scholar to the College.

7. CANDIDATURE

The scholar will be required to be enrolled full-time in the Bachelor of Engineering (Honours), Bachelor of Engineering (Research and Development) (Honours) or a flexible double degree program offered by the College during the full duration of their Scholarship award.

Requests to vary the program choice must be referred to the Dean of the College (or nominee).

8. COMMENCEMENT & DEFERRAL

The Scholarship will commence from the first day of the first teaching period in first semester in the academic year for which it is offered, unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer or approved by the Dean of the College.

The Scholarship will generally only be offered to students commencing in first semester, as defined in the University Calendar, however the Selection Committee may award a scholarship at other times in exceptional circumstances.

Any requests for deferrals of the Scholarship must be approved by the Dean of the College (or nominee). Subject to approval, the award may be deferred for a maximum of one semester.

9. SCHOLARSHIP DURATION

The Scholarship is tenable for one year of the scholar’s undergraduate program, subject to satisfactory academic progress and continued enrolment in a program in the College.

10. ATTENDANCE

The scholar is expected to be in attendance at the University at the commencement of the first teaching period and to remain enrolled full-time during the University teaching periods or semesters. If a scholar is absent from the University for an extended period of time through illness or for any other reason, approval must have been sought and obtained from the College for ‘program leave’ from the Program. It is also essential that the Dean of the College be notified and, where relevant, approval for suspension of the Scholarship sought.
11. LEVEL OF PERFORMANCE

The scholar is expected to achieve at a satisfactorily level in the first semester of the Scholarship. In the event the minimum standard is not met, the scholar may appeal to the Dean of the College (or nominee) to discuss continuation of the Scholarship.

12. CESSATION OF AWARD

The award ceases or should be surrendered:

a) At the conclusion of the period outlined in section 10; or
b) On the date on which the student withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences
c) If a scholar fails to enrol as required in section 7;
d) If a scholar changes to part-time enrolment without permission;
e) If a scholar changes their program or course without permission;
f) If a scholar fails to meet the minimum academic performance requirements outlined in section 9;
g) If a scholar breaches academic or behavioural standards set by the University under the Academic Misconduct and Discipline Rules

13. TERMINATION

The Scholarship will terminate at the conclusion of the scholar’s year of enrolment in the program for which it has been awarded or on the date on which the scholar ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences, whichever is the earlier.

The University may terminate the scholarship before this time if the scholar does not fulfil their obligations. This determination will be made by the Dean of the College (or nominee).

14. INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE

Permission must be obtained from the Dean of the College (or nominee) to retain the Scholarship during an international exchange. Permission should be requested in writing at the same time as the applications for exchange are made to the International Exchange Office.

15. TAXATION

It is the scholar’s responsibility to determine the taxation implications of the award, if any, which apply to their individual circumstances.

16. ACCOMMODATION

It is the scholars’ responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from University Accommodation Services. Information may also be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation
17. PUBLICITY

It is anticipated that the scholar may be requested to participate in publicity of the Scholarship from time to time. This may include publicity in the state or territory of residence or of schooling.

On occasions, the scholar may be contacted by the College to participate in activities including, but not limited to, an interview, a photograph, and a formal Scholarship presentation ceremony. The College may also request written responses from the scholar which can include, but is not limited to, a summary of basic profile information, descriptions of University experiences, and a note of appreciation for the Donor who has funded their Scholarship.

The University may publicise the Scholarship by publishing the names of the scholars. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science.

18. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE
